Kurt Wolter

What sets us apart:

- Professional, experienced craftsmen
The people working on our projects are dedicated professionals; we know that the lowest price is rarely the best value!
- A long term commitment to our customers
We are available “after the sale” to address any concern in a fair and appropriate manner, knowing that our future success depends on your willingness to refer friends and family.
- Accurate quotes, up front
Years of experience and painstaking attention to detail ensure that our cost and completion date estimates are reliable.
- Professional project management
Managing work plans and budgets, anticipating sticking-points, and resolving issues quickly and fairly ensure a successful project.
- Keeping our customers informed
We understand the importance of frequent, candid communication. Our customers are kept informed; their phone calls and e-mails are addressed promptly.

Historic Preservation Award, 1985

Kurt was a pioneer in restoring historic buildings in West Chester, PA. In 1985 he was recognized for restoring a dilapidated and abandoned historic building at 8 East Gay Street. Working with the architectural firm of John Milner and Associates and many skilled craftsmen, the building was returned to its' original appearance and made functional again.

For over 25 years Kurt Wolter has had a passion for historic restorations and reproductions, beautifully detailed custom homes, and finely crafted additions, renovations, kitchens and baths.

Sprucemont, this page, and front cover

In 1999 Kurt undertook the restoration of Sprucemont, one of Tredyffrin Township's oldest surviving structures, circa 1695, with a 1763 Federal style addition. While paying painstaking attention to historic details, virtually every modern amenity was incorporated. Today, Sprucemont is a proud (and comfortable!) tribute to our community's heritage.
